Charlton's Heroics Give United Lead

LONDON (Reuters)—Bobby Charlton scored two great goals Monday to give Manchester United an Easter double over Portsmouth and the leadership of the First Division of the English Soccer League.

Manchester took another easy 3-1 victory Monday. Charlton, the hard-shooting kingpin of England's international team, opened the scoring early in the first half with a tremendous 25-yard drive, then wrapped the game up with his second goal.

Manchester United now has 50 points, with four more games to play. One point back is defending champion Wolverhampton, with seven more games to play.

Wolves, idle Monday, can regain the lead with a win at Leeds today.

United's win killed any hope Portsmouth had of avoiding relegation to the Second Division, after 32 straight years in the First Division.

Third-place Arsenal was also idle Monday. Their game with Birmingham City was postponed when Birmingham fullback Jeff Hall contracted polio last week and his teammates were quarantined.

Donaldsons Keep Buttons All Summer

Art and Harry Donaldson made good on their fourth defence of the city open golf buttons Sunday, and in the bargain won the right to wear them until next September.

The Gorge Vale pair defeated Laurie Kerr and George Andrews of Royal Colwood Golf and Country Club, 3 and 1, in the final match of the winter series. Despite the near-gale conditions at Victoria Golf Club, the Donaldsons had a best-ball score of 68, one under par.

Alan Manson and Bill Carlow of Victoria Golf Club won the junior buttons, defeating defending champions Bill Wakeham and Alan MacLeod of Gorge Vale, 5 and 4.

Lakers Reach Final Thanks to Baylor

Elgin Baylor and the amazing Minneapolis Lakers rule the roost today in the western division of the National Basketball Association, thanks to Sunday's 106-104 victory over the defending champion St. Louis Hawks at Minneapolis.

Victory gave the underdog Lakers the best-of-seven series, four games to two. They will meet either Syracuse or Boston, tied 3-3 in their eastern division playoff after the Nationals' 133-121 victory Sunday at Syracuse. Deciding game will be played Wednesday night.

TWICE A HERO

Baylor, former All-American from Seattle University, scored 33 points Sunday and for the second straight game got the winning points from the foul line. On Saturday, when he scored 36 and the Lakers won, 98-97, it was his foul shot in the last 27 seconds that won it. Sunday his two foul shots with a minute left were the winning points.

Hawks, trailing by 12 points with five minutes to play, had cut the margin to 104-103 with 1.17 remaining. Baylor was fouled, sank both on a bonus situation, and the Hawks didn't have enough time left, although Cliff Hagen scored two points on fouls.

PROVIDED SPARK

It was a remarkable series triumph for the Lakers, who finished 16 games behind the Hawks in the regular season and beat them only four times in 12 games. Baylor provided the spark although saddled with four fouls midway through the second quarter.

At Syracuse, veteran Dolph Schayes paced the Nats with 39 points. Syracuse, leading by 19 points in the third quarter, almost blew the game as Boston pulled within four points, 113-109, midway in the final period.

Duncan Curlers Island Champs

DUNCAN—Duncan curlers won the Dominion Hotel Trophy, emblematic of the Vancouver Island men's rink championship, for the fifth year in a row Saturday night when Harvey Hodge's quartet bested Jim Tang of Victoria, 10-7, in a playoff.

Hodge, Tang and Bob Cummings of the Alberni Valley Curling Club finished with 2-1 records in the four-rink round robin series to force a playoff. Courtenay's hard-luck crew of Mel, Joe and Doug McClure and Terry Nugent lost three games, the last two going to last rock.

In the playoff, Hodge outscored Cummings, 10-4, in the semi-final, then jumped into a 5-0 lead in the final. The Victorians threatened several times in the late ends but Hodge came through on the eighth and ninth ends with shots which kept him in front.

Red Weyman, Harvey Janzen and Art Jones supported Hodge while Dick Pick, Joe Dukowski and Jim Lackie completed Tang's rink.

VICTORY FOR MOSS

GOODWOOD, Eng. (AP)—Stirling Moss Monday drove a Cooper-Climax to victory in the 100-mile auto race for Grand Prix cars at the tricky Goodwood circuit. He won only 48 hours after crashing in the same car.

Rain Curtails Cricket Test

LAHORE, Pakistan (Reuters)—Rain Monday cut play to 15 minutes on the fourth day of the third cricket test match between Pakistan and the West Indies.

Pakistan, losing one wicket for nine runs, took its second innings scores to 64 for three and still needed 196 runs to avert an innings defeat. The Pakistanis followed on after being dismissed for 209 in reply to the West Indies' first-innings score of 469.
